

Located in the heart of Santa Cruz, Soif Restaurant & Wine Bar® is an elegant, yet casual venue available to host an intimate, private dinner party or full banquet style event. From fixed price, multi-course menus to family style service, Chef Tom McNary will create a memorable dinner for you and your group featuring dishes inspired by the latest farmers market finds. Employ the expertise of Wine Curator Jon Bates and Bar Manager Matt Barron to customize your beverage program, showcasing creations from our full bar or unique wines paired straight from our retail shop. From intimate smaller gatherings, to a full restaurant buy-out, we are pleased to accommodate your needs.

105 Walnut Avenue | Santa Cruz, CA
Contact: Steve Billings, General Manager
831-423-2020

steve@soifwine.com
www.soifwine.com

The Mezzanine

Overlooking the restaurant and kitchen, this intimate room (capacity 16) is ideal for private parties, executive meetings and sales groups. Guests can overlook the entire dining room and enjoy the energy of our open kitchen or pull the blinds to feel a world apart. The space can also be configured for a standing reception up to 20 people.

The Soif Bar

Our bar has the look and feel of a European metropolitan meeting spot. Handcrafted cocktails and exceptional wine selections give you and your guests a space to meet and socialize in the heart of Santa Cruz. This room can host 20 seated and 30 standing guests, and is great for receptions and canape parties as well as other celebratory events.

The Wine Shop

With its own dedicated entrance, Soif's wine shop is lined with bottles, inviting guests to explore and browse hundreds of domestic and international wines. Featuring selections from the Santa Cruz Mountains to small European appellations, Soif is the foremost wine merchant in Santa Cruz County. Here we host regular tastings and wine-focused events open to the public as well as our Terroiriste Wine Club members, and can create a truly unique night for your guests. This room is semi-private and can be reserved for 10- 20 guests seated and 30 standing.

Soif Restaurant

Available for partial and full buyouts, the main dining room elevates the restaurant's focus on wine featuring deep red walls and real grapevine accents, creating a warm and comfortable atmosphere for any event. Add the bar or wine shop for a reception space or to increase the size of your event. Can accommodate table service for up to 50 people or 65 people including the bar.

